CRISTINA GARCIA CHIEF OF STAFF ALLEGED PERPETRATOR IN RETALIATION SCHEME AGAINST FORMER STAFFER

BY BRIAN HEWS

In February, the Washington Post reported that David John Kernick, a former field representative for Cristina Garcia, said Garcia approached him after a fundraiser at a whiskey bar in 2014 and suggested that they play spin the bottle in her hotel room.

That was according to a complaint that was filed with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing in 2018.

QUESTIONS SURROUND CENTRAL BASIN WATER CANDIDATES VYING FOR ACEITUNO'S SEAT

BY BRIAN HEWS

Central Basin Municipal Water District (CB) board considered candidates this week to fill the seat of Pedro Aceituno, who recently resigned under threat of an incompatible office lawsuit by the Los Angeles District attorney.

The Division I seat became vacant Mar. 8 and includes the cities of Bell Gardens, Downey, Montebello, Pico Rivera, West Whittier-Los Nietos, and unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County.

The appointment process called for interested residents "to submit a letter of interest and a résumé that includes a statement of qualifications and other information by April 6 at 3 p.m."

The candidate's resume and cover letter were reviewed by GM Kevin Hunt for acceptance, with sources telling HMG-CN that his assistant, Maggie Gomez, also assisted with the review.

And, true to form with most actions by Hunt that involve the Board, some of

BY BRIAN HEWS

The La Mirada City Council selected Larry Mowles to serve as Mayor for the 2018-19 term at this past Tuesday's regular City Council Meeting.

Councilmember Steve De Ruse was selected to serve as Mayor Pro Tem.

Embattled Councilmember Andrew Sarega was once again passed over, reflecting the distrust many La Mirada residents have of the councilman, along with his Dad, Ion, who is constantly seen complaining at City Council meetings.

Sarega is currently under investigation by the Fair Political Practices Commission for major campaign finance irregularities during the 2017 election where he garnered a little over 600 votes.

This will be the second term as Mayor for Mowles, who has served on the City Council since 2011. He is a Navy veteran, and recently retired after working in the insurance industry for over 30 years. He has been a resident of La Mirada for over 40 years.

This will be the second term as Mayor pro tem for Steve De Ruse, who has served on the City Council since 2011. He is a senior pastor and has been a resident of La Mirada since 1976.

Also serving on the City Council are Ed Eng, John Lewis, and Sarega.

CERRITOS LIKELY TO OPPOSE HIGH DENSITY HOUSING BILL

BY BRIAN HEWS

Highway gridlock and soaring housing costs are a part of life in California and one lawmaker has started a heated debate with a bill that would force cities to become more transit oriented, allowing more apartments and condominiums to be built a short walk from transit stations.

And Cerritos, similar to over 100 other California cities, wants nothing to do with it.

In the last legislative cycle, the Governor signed a massive 15 bill housing package which cities have not fully digested and realized the full impacts.

In January 2018, Senator Scott Weiner

HALLOWEEN CLUB'S ANNUAL APRIL SPOOK SHOW DRAWS THOUSANDS

BY TAMMYE MCDUFF

Spook show is an annual Halloween festival that features local vendors, artists, collectors, teachers, spook-makers, hauntrepreneurs and musicians for like minded Halloween enthusiasts. The 6th Annual Spook Show was held this past Saturday, April 7th at Halloween Club headquarters in La Mirada.

Spook Show began with one simple mission, to facilitate an outdoor gathering where local Southern California business and fellow enthusiasts could come and share their supernatural desire for the macabre, while supporting the local community. The Spook Show Festival was strongly embraced and with word of mouth spell-like sharing, fellow ghouls and freaks came in droves to recreate, sell, exhibit, shop, taste, listen, frolic and celebrate the unique culture inspired by the ancient Samhain tradition.

Event director, Dora Alfaro stated, "Traditionally, 20th century spook shows were events that consisted of séances, magic shows and monsters. Halloween Club Spook Shows are a family friendly take on that. For our sixth year, we are

PICO RIVERA COUNCILMAN Bob Archuleta, who is running for State Senate's 32nd District, spoke with a couple hundred members of SEIU Local 2015 this past Tuesday outside of the Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration.

Bob Archuleta, state senate candidate for the 32nd District, addressed the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors Tuesday during its meeting on behalf of the members of the Association for Los Angeles Deputy Sheriffs (ALADS).

He expressed concern about the chronically high vacancy rate of deputies within some areas of the county, which subject personnel to mandatory overtime, including unscheduled back-to-back eight-hour shifts. “This is causing undue burden to those protecting our communities,” said Archuleta, a former reserve police officer in Montebello. “My personal experience on the streets and speaking with some of the rank and file leaves no doubt that this is detracting from our objective of providing the highest-quality patrol services possible,” he said. “I am in full support of our county’s first responders and their safety and moral.” Archuleta, a Pico Rivera city councilman who works directly with the men and women who comprise the city’s sheriff’s station, urged the supervisors to agree to terms with ALADS that would allow the Sheriff’s Department to recruit and retain personnel to reduce the number of deputy vacancies.

LA MIRADA’S MEASURE I SALES TAX SUNSETS

The City of La Mirada’s one percent supplemental sales tax officially ended. The five-year tax was approved in November 2012. La Mirada’s sales tax rate has now dropped from 10.25 percent to 9.5 percent, which is the lowest rate in Los Angeles County. The County’s .25 percent homeless tax, Measure H, became effective locally at the same time Measure I expired.

La Mirada voters approved Measure I after the State of California eliminated redevelopment agencies and took away other local revenues, leaving cities with very limited resources to provide services and address infrastructure needs. A 29-member Citizens Task Force on City Finances and Operations had previously recommended the measure be placed on the ballot, and proposed the funding be used to address unmet infrastructure needs.

In keeping with the Citizens Task Force’s recommendation, the City Council has dedicated funds generated by Measure I to completing neighborhood infrastructure repairs. Measure I generated nearly $28 million, exceeding original estimates ranging from $20-$25 million.

Comprehensive neighborhood infrastructure repairs have been completed throughout much of the City, with more neighborhoods scheduled to receive improvements within the year. The work includes pavement rehabilitation, replacement of damaged curb, gutter, sidewalk and driveway aprons, upgrades to existing and placement of new handicap curb access ramps, reconstruction and lining of storm drain systems, and removal and replacement of existing slotted cross gutters. A five-member Measure I Oversight Board meets quarterly to review revenues and expenditures associated with the sales tax to ensure the funds are spent as intended.

“The La Mirada City Council has kept its word to limit the Measure I sales tax to five years,” says Mayor Larry Mowles. “Additionally, all funds generated by Measure I have been dedicated to neighborhood improvements, as promised.”

The City plans to continue its robust neighborhood infrastructure improvement program over the next several years beyond the conclusion of Measure I. City staff continues to explore alternative revenue sources to complete the final phases of the work.

For additional information on La Mirada’s Measure I neighborhood improvements or other capital projects, call the City’s Public Works Department (562) 902-2385.

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND FOUNDER JOHN MCEUEN'S 'I PICKED THIS LIFE'

BY TAMMYE MCDUFF

John McEuen is an American folk musician and founding member of the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band [Dirt Band]. He was born in Oakland, and after seeing the Dillards perform in 1964, he began playing banjo at 17. “I was a dork in high school,” says McEuen, “I didn’t ever have anyone who would want it, but just in case, I used to practice my autograph. I can sign my autograph in the dark, while talking.”

During his career, he has performed and recorded with Alison Krauss, The Allman Brothers Band, America, Arlo Guthrie, Asleep at the Wheel, Big Head Todd and the Monsters, Bill Monroe, Bob Dylan, Doc Watson, Dolly Parton, Glen Campbell, Jerry Garcia, John Denver, Johnny Cash, June Carter Cash, Linda Ronstadt, Mark O'Connor, The Marshall Tucker Band, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Phish, Steve Goodman, Steve Vai, Vassar Clements, Waylon Jennings, and Willie Nelson.

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band's roots were originally formed by two high school friends, Jeff Hanna and Bruce Kunkel, during the early 1960s. McEuen came into the newly reformed band in 1966. In 1967, the band released its first album, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, on Liberty Records, with a minor hit in "Buy for Me the Rain".

They had no hits from their next three albums until their cover version of "Mr. Bojangles". McEuen suggested the band go to Nashville to record, which they did in 1971. The McEuen brothers came up with the idea of recording an album of traditional bluegrass and country music, different from the electric folk-rock they had been playing. McEuen asked banjoist and new friend Earl Scruggs if he would record with the band in June 1971 resulting in a triple album, Will the Circle Be Unbroken [1973] that featured guest appearances by country musicians Earl Scruggs, Roy Acuff, Merle Travis, and Maybelle Carter. The album received critical and popular accolades and was certified gold.

McEuen has known Steve Martin since high school, when he would give Martin occasional lessons on the banjo. In 1978, he was asked by Martin to provide the backing band for a comic, novelty song called King Tut. With Martin on vocals, the Dirt Band recorded the song under the alias the Toot Uncommons. McEuen produced and played on Martin's album The Crow: New Songs for the 5-String Banjo and the album was number one for seven months winning the Grammy Award for Best Bluegrass Album.

In 1986, after 20 years with the Dirt Band, McEuen departed to pursue a solo career.”It was too difficult to do what I wanted to do in life and music, with a group who didn’t want to expand.” McEuen added, “I felt that anything that I suggested would not be considered. They just wanted to stick with the iconic sound the band and the fans had become accustomed to over the last 50 years. Not that anything is wrong with that, I wanted more.”

From 1991–1997, he released four albums for Vanguard Records. He composed music for movies and television. He appeared as a guest on albums, but returned to the Dirt Band in 2001 only to leave once more in October 2017 and form his own group The String Wizards. When asked why he chose that name, he said “Because they are really good! I am creating my own situation, the music was too hard for them [Dirt Band] to play I think, too many 8th notes.” He says he was always performing and the last year he was with the Dirt Band, 2017, he realized they had done 65 shows and he did 65 more, “That was a turning point for me,” noted McEuen.

In the first 20 years of the Dirt Band, McEuen did 95% of the interviews, “They didn’t like going out to the radio stations or take interviews. They would rather sleep, which was fine, but after tripped out four to five thousand interviews, people starting telling me I should write it all down.”

“I guess it was around year 35 or so with the Dirt Band, when I realized I had acquired about 8,000 interviews that I began thinking that I should listen to those folks.” By the time McEuen had 10,000 interviews under his banjo, he began to realize he had a knack for storytelling and had the ability to remember them all, “I think this is impart due to the fact I never did any drugs.”

McEuen has a delightful view of the world as rock star with a quick wit and sharp sense of humor. “I’m glad the band was there,” he adds,” because I had a great platform to perform own.” When asked how many instruments he played, he said, “Usually one at a time...”

“I have recorded with the best fiddlers in the world and I know how good they are and I know how good I’m not!” stated McEuen, “The book came about from my stories. I have had the privilege to meet, know and record with so many talented people ... or share a dressing room with like Bob Dylan or Eddie Van Halen, sitting in with Willie Nelson, the Stray Cats or jamming with Leon Russell in his home studio on a Sunday.”

The Life I’ve Picked traces the memoir of McEuens personal journey through the roots of American music. “I am the best me I have ever been and what I am playing now, is the best I have ever played,” laughed McEuen, “Besides if people like it, I hope they will spread the word, and if they don’t like I hope they don’t spread the word. It’s that simple.”

The City has recently hired more deputies on the weekends to walk up and down Pioneer Blvd. The high visibility patrol "is a great way to show thieves to pick another area."

OFFICIAL WARN ABOUT 'KNOCK-KNOCK' BURGLARIES

Law Enforcement has noticed an increase in “Knock-Knock” Burglaries, during both day and night.

These burglars, usually 2-4 people, operate together to break into homes. They typically have a getaway driver and are in communication with each other via cell phones.

They prefer empty homes and target homes that appear this way (no cars in the driveway, no lights on, mail/newspapers building up, trash cans left out, etc).

They also target these homes during special occasions when they know residents will most likely be away for several hours (Thanksgiving, Christmas, Super-bowl Parties, etc).

The burglars will profile homes that appear empty and knock on the front door to see if anyone is home.

If nobody answers, they will force entry (oftentimes via a back door/window so neighbors will not see) and ransack homes.

YOUTH VOLUNTEERS AND INTERNS NEEDED FOR YOUTH CENTER SUMMER CAMP

By Laurie Hanson

Parents can keep their teens ages 14 and up busy and active this summer as “Junior Leaders” for The Youth Center’s CAMP S.H.A.R.K. at Rossmoor Park. They’ll gain valuable workplace skills and community service hours. S.H.A.R.K. stands for “Science, Hands on, Art, Recreation, and Knowledge.” It represents the new concept and brand for the well-respected day camp run by The Youth Center.

CAMPS.H.A.R.K. runs for eight weeks from June 18 to Aug. 7, Monday – Friday, and volunteer hours are flexible. Being a Junior Leader at CAMP S.H.A.R.K. offers a unique opportunity for youth to learn, and serve the community, all while being part of a fun and amazing team of people working with kids ages 5 to 17. There will be weekly themed events, crafts, games, classes, sports and field trips geared towards the overall growth and development of healthy kids.

Volunteers should have an interest working with children, have enthusiasm for helping with special events, crafts and tournaments, provide help for field trips, and more. Their most important responsibility will be to represent the Youth Center with integrity, positively interacting with campers as they contribute to lasting memories and empower a sense of com-the candidates are questionable at best, with some enveloped in blatant conflicts of interest that should have precluded an interview for the position.

One candidate, former Downey councilman Luis Marquez, had a paternity lawsuit filed against him in 2016.

It was first revealed by HMG-CN in Oct 2016 with the lawsuit filed at the Norwalk Court, under case number VF014650.

Marquez, Downey Patriot Publisher Jennifer Givens and her beat reporter Eric Pierce, slammed HMG-CN for the Oct. story alleging a “political attack.”

But one week later, the Downey paper was forced to backtrack their criticism of HMG-CN when they “obtained” documents and published the Marquez story “confirming” the extra marital affair and the child out of wedlock.

A second candidate, Andrew Lara, is an elected director and current Vice President for the Pico Water District. Lara is current CB Board member Mark Grajeda’s boss.

Another candidate, Tammy Ashton, is the wife of Downey Mayor Sean Ashton; Mayor Ashton is current CB Board member John Oskoui’s boss at Downey City Hall.

Yet another candidate, Daniel Gonzales, is from Montebello and is a rumored friend of Aceituno’s.

Jennifer Rodriguez is a current Bell Gardens councilwoman, but she is rumored not to be running for the council position in November.

HMG-CN could not find additional information on remaining candidates Joseph Palombi, Fred Zermeno, or Robert Martinez, as a public records request submitted to CB’s Joseph Legaspi on April 9 has yet to be answered.

The winning candidate must garner five out of seven votes, if no candidate is chosen, the position will be voted on by the Los Angeles County Supervisors.

“Being a non-profit, the Youth Center relies immensely upon the volunteerism of young adults in the community,” said Camp S.H.A.R.K. Director Jay Martz. “Not only do the volunteers have an amazing summer working hands-on, they also get the opportunity to inspire the communities’ youth! “

For more information, please call Camp S.H.A.R.K. Director Jay Martz at 562-493-4043 or email him at jay@theyouthcenter.org.

UNIVERSAL STUDIOS HOLLYWOOD TO OPEN 'STRANGER THINGS' IN SEPT.

STAFF REPORT

For the first time ever, Universal Studios Hollywood, Universal Orlando Resort and Universal Studios Singapore are partnering with Netflix to bring “Stranger Things” to life at this year’s “Halloween Horror Nights” events. Fans of the series will get the chance to brave the Upside Down and confront the supernatural as each park debuts all-new mazes inspired by season one of the critically-acclaimed series.

The parallel universe, referred to as the Upside Down that terrorized the small town of Hawkins, Indiana in Netflix’s mega-hit “Stranger Things,” will bring the chattering, predatory Demogorgon to “Halloween Horror Nights” to stalk unwitting guests as they encounter iconic scenes, characters and environments from the mesmerizing series.

Working collaboratively with Netflix, along with the creators and executive producer of the blockbuster series—Matt Duffer, Ross Duffer and Shawn Levy, the mazes at Universal Studios Hollywood, Universal Orlando Resort and Universal Studios Singapore will be authentic representations of “Stranger Things,” designed to transport guests into artfully recreated scenes and storylines. From the menacing Hawkins National Laboratory, under the U.S. Department of Energy, to the Byers home adorned with an erratic display of flashing Christmas lights and the eerie Upside Down woods oozing a shower of floating orb-like spores, the chilling new mazes will offer surprising twists and unexpected turns around every corner.

Universal Studios’ “Halloween Horror Nights” is the ultimate Halloween event. For more than 25 years, guests from around the world have visited “Halloween Horror Nights” to become victims inside their own horror film. Multiple movie-quality mazes based on iconic horror television shows, films and original stories come to life season after season. And, the streets of each park’s event are transformed into highly-themed scare zones where menacing scare-actors lunge from every darkened corner.

Halloween Horror Nights begins Friday, September 14 in Hollywood and Orlando and on Friday, September 28 in Singapore. Additional details about the events will be revealed soon. Select tickets and vacation packages for Universal Orlando’s Halloween Horror Nights are on sale now. SUBURBAN LEAGUE BASEBALL : CHIQUITO TOO MUCH FOR NORWALK AS JOHN GLENN EDGES CITY RIVALS LATE

BY LOREN KOPFF
@LORENKOPFF ON TWITTER

WHITTIER-John Glenn High baseball coach Jack Brooks was happy to escape with a win over crosstown rival Norwalk High this past Wednesday, but that’s where the happiness ends. Norwalk head coach Bill Wenrick was also unhappy with his team’s performance, as the Lancers squandered yet again opportunities to get that timely hit or two which would push across runs.

In the end, the host Eagles rode the arm and bat of senior pitcher Humberto Chiquito, who yielded five hits, struck out 14, walked one and went the distance for the second time this season. Oh, he also had the game-winning hit in the bottom of the sixth inning as Glenn edged Norwalk 2-1 in a game played at Rio Hondo College.

The Eagles, ranked second in the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division 4 poll, improved to 12-5 overall and 2-0 in the Suburban League. Norwalk, having one of its better seasons, dropped to 8-6, 2-1.

“If that kid is not one of the best players in the area, I don’t know who is,” Brooks said. “He’s a great kid; he’s what it’s all about. We played [terrible] and you can quote me on that. We’re missing two starters today for disciplinary reasons. We knew we had a tough game. That’s a much better team.

“When you’re going through a season, you need to have a couple of these games go your way if you’re going to have a championship season,” he continued. “And luckily, this one went our way.”

to lead off the bottom of the sixth and two pitches later, Chiquito doubled him home. On the next pitch, junior catcher Alexis Martinez tried to get him to third, but bunted right back to Norwalk junior catcher Andrew Arriola. One pitch later, senior third baseman Rafael De Avila’s attempt to move Chiquito to third was foiled when he bunted back to senior pitcher Anthony Gonzalez, who then threw to senior third baseman Isaiah Villa to complete the double play.

“He’s one of the best in our league,” Wenrick said of Chiquito. “It seems like he’s been around as long as I have. He threw a great game. We struck out way too many times and half of those times were looking. And then when we did have opportunities, we didn’t execute. I think both teams are better than what they played today. I know they can execute better than they did. They kept us in the game. But I’m proud of our guys, I’m proud of Anthony, getting out of jams and staying in the game.”

Chiquito was on fire early on, throwing a first pitch strike to nine of the first 10 batters he faced, striking out seven of the first nine he faced and not allowing a Lancer to reach until senior left fielder David Urzua led off the top of the fourth inning with a single into shallow centerfield. But he would get caught stealing on a 1-0 count to Villa for the second out.

Glenn took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the third when Gonzalez hit junior left fielder Julian Marrujo with two outs. Marrujo would then steal second and come home on a base hit from junior shortstop Joseph Angulo. He too would steal second but eventually become the third Eagle in

SUBURBAN LEAGUE SOFTBALL: MORINISHI HANDLES MAYFAIR IN MANY WAYS AS CERRITOS TAKES OVER 1st PLACE

BY LOREN KOPFF

One of the advantages a high school softball pitcher has is that she knows a lot about her opposing players, especially if they are travel softball teammates. Cerritos senior pitcher Jennifer Morinishi is no different to this when it comes to Mayfair High.

Morinishi knows a lot of the Mayfair players, whether through recreational ball several years ago, or through the travel circuit. Some of them hit off Morinishi all the time as travel softball teammates, thus making it hard for them to try to get hits if they’ve seen what she throws when it comes to the high school games.

Morinishi battled the Monsoons with first place on the line this past Tuesday and held off a late rally as the Lady Dons posted a 7-4 victory which moved the team to 11-4 overall and 4-0 in the circuit. Mayfair dropped to 11-4, 3-1 as both teams, along with La Mirada High, are receiving votes for the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division 3 poll. Morinishi struck out six, walked two and had a hand in six other outs.

“When you play teams where they’re throwing seven innings, you get to the point where you start seeing the same batters three or four times,” Morinishi said. “A good batter will hit at least one out of three times. It just comes together all in the same inning and they got momentum and I think it was just us not capitalizing on the momentum that we did have.”

“We just had confidence and worked on the things we needed to work on,” said Cerritos head coach Kim Ensey. “That’s kind of been our philosophy this year; making sure that we’re playing the game as flawlessly as possible. We did not do that today, but minimizing errors, minimizing our own mistakes and capitalizing on other teams’ [mistakes] and I think we were able to do that today.”

The Lady Dons, winners of seven straight games, built a 2-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning on senior first baseman Kiara Crockett-Pope’s home run to center. They had a chance to add to that in the next inning when they loaded the bases when Mayfair pitcher Skyler Swearingen hit a pair of batters and walked another. But a controversial pop-up by Morinishi in foul territory ended that threat.

Cerritos would not waste another opportunity in the third, and in fact, sent 11 batters to the plate, getting four hits off two pitchers and scoring five runs. It all started with Swearingen intentionally walking Crockett-Pope before junior left fielder Elise Gibbs doubled over the head of Mayfair right fielder Sydney Soto. Then with two outs, senior right fielder Kristina Mendez reached on an error, allowing Crockett-Pope and Gibbs to score.

Freshman designated player Samiya Jones would single and freshman second baseman Lauren Lejano was hit by a pitch to load the bases. Two pitches later, sophomore center fielder Essence Gibbs singled in a pair of runs and on the next pitch, Morinishi made it 7-0 with a base hit.

“We definitely had some good opportunities in the beginning and we weren’t taking advantage of them,” Ensey said. “And then they made that error at second base

GAHR SOFTBALL FINISHES STRONG IN MICHELLE CAREW CLASSIC, READY FOR SGVL ACTION

BY LOREN KOPFF

The Gahr High softball team has been one of the hottest teams in the area, winning eight straight games with five shut-outs in that span. After losing to Cathedral Catholic High 1-0 in the semifinals of the prestigious Michelle Carew Classic last Saturday, the Lady Gladiators rebounded for a resounding victory in the third place game.

Gahr blasted Chino Hills High 11-3 later in the day behind a 12-hit attack. Seniors De-jaenae Davis, Madison Huskey and Jade Wittman combined to go for seven for eight with six runs batted in and Huskey, Wittman, junior Jazmin Hill and freshman Taylor Stephens all hit homeruns. The Lady Gladiators, ranked fourth in the California Interscholastic Federation-Southern Section Division 1 poll, then opened San Gabriel Valley League action by crushing Dominguez High 16-2 this past Tuesday to improve to 13-4 overall. Gahr had a season-high 22 hits against the Dons as 11 of the 13 players who batted had at least one hit. Junior Daisy Torres picked up her first varsity victory as Gahr visited Lynwood High on Apr. 12 and will host league nemesis Warren High on Tuesday. The Lady Gladiators will then travel to Paramount High on Thursday.

In other softball action, Artesia High got past Bellflower High 5-2 this past Tuesday to improve to 7-7 overall and 2-2 in the Suburban League. The Lady Pioneers hosted Cerritos High on Apr. 12 and will visit Mayfair High and Norwalk High on Tuesday and Thursday respectively.

John Glenn High was blasted by Norwalk High 16-0 this past Tuesday to fall to 2-10, 0-5. The Lady Eagles have yet to play in a seven-inning game this season and all but one game has been less than six innings. Glenn visited La Mirada High on Apr. 12 and will go to Cerritos on Thursday.

Norwalk improved to 6-7, 2-3 and will visit Bellflower on Tuesday.

Valley Christian High has not played since blanking The Webb Schools 10-0 on Mar. 29 but hosted Village Christian High on Apr. 12 in the Olympic League opener. Valley Christian is 6-5 and will travel to Whittier Christian High on Tuesday before entertaining Maranatha High on Thursday.

Whitney began Academy League action with a 1-0 loss to Oxford Academy this past Tuesday to drop to 1-6 overall. The Lady Wildcats have been shutout five times and will host Calvary Chapel Downey High on introduced SB 827 that will allow for the construction of high density housing near major transit stops while also limiting the authority of local government to review and approve these types of developments.

The bill has been called a radical step to fix California's housing crisis and has the potential to reshape neighborhoods by overruling single-family zoning and overriding limits on new housing near public transportation.

The bill would allow developments of up to eight stories within a half mile radius of a rail hub and a quarter mile from bus stops with frequent service.

The City currently has six transit operators with fixed routes that traverse practically every major arterial within city boundaries. According to the City, SB 827 would impact many of the residential communities along the routes and allow for high density developments without City authorization.

In their agenda report Cerritos City staff wrote, "These designated distances would encompass a vast amount of Cerritos properties and eliminate the ability for the City to engage in the planning approval process. SB 827 would allow developers to construct buildings up to ten stories tall with no parking minimums and limited design review even if local zoning codes preclude it."

The bill would allow cities to reject a development if they indicated it would demolish a historical landmark or violate city demolition rules.

But city officials could no longer force a local height or density limit that are lower than those in SB 827, or require developers to build off-street parking.

As of today, approximately 100 cities have taken action to oppose SB 827 and for these reasons, the League of California Cities is urging member cities to oppose the bill and notify the author, the Senate Transportation and Housing Committee and the Senate Committee on Governance and Finance.

It is anticipated the Cerritos City Council will oppose the bill.

CITY OF CERRITOS RECOGNIZES AUTISM MONTH

The City of Cerritos joins communities across North America in recognizing Autism Month in April. To help raise awareness of autism, the City will illuminate both entrances to the Cerritos Sculpture Garden with blue lighting throughout the month of April.

Autism is a developmental disability that affects millions of individuals and their families worldwide. On December 18, 2007 the United Nations General Assembly adopted resolution 62/139 declaring April 2 World Autism Awareness Day, encouraging United Nations Member States to raise awareness about autism throughout society and to promote early diagnosis and early behavioral intervention.

Cerritos Mayor Grace Hu said, "The City of Cerritos is pleased to play a role in raising global awareness of autism and promoting the growing need for concern about this condition."

three innings to be stranded in scoring position.

In the next inning, Gonzalez walked Chiquito, who would move to second on a wild pitch. Then with one out, De Avila singled but would be doubled up following a long fly ball to right field from senior first baseman Sergio Burgos.

“We didn’t make any adjustments,” Brooks said. “[Gonzalez] worked away, away, away and we didn’t make any adjustments until that last inning when we hit a ball to the right center gap and then Humberto hit the ball over the second baseman’s head.

“We didn’t execute,” Brooks later said. “We were...bad, and if we’re going to compete for a league title or a championship, we cannot play like this. We didn’t get down bunts, we screwed up a squeeze. We got a sac bunt own in the last inning and that’s the only thing we did fundamentally good offensively.”

After stranding two runners in the fifth, the Lancers finally broke through in the sixth when Urzua reached on an error with one out. Then after Chiquito’s 13th strikeout, back to back base hits from Villa and senior designated hitter Mark Gil plated Urzua. Norwalk would have a chance to tie the game in the top of the seventh after senior second baseman Adrian Perez singled to right and senior right fielder Richard Lozano reached on an infield knock. But a double play and a pop-up ended the game.

Both teams combined for 10 hits by 10 different players and Gonzalez pitched his first complete game of the season, and third straight by a Norwalk hurler, striking out three and walking one.

“He’s been pitching great all year,” Wenrick said. “It’s just been hard luck. [Against] Mayfair, he pitched that great game but didn’t get a win because it went extra innings. The same thing happened with South El Monte.”

Both teams will complete the last season series as Suburban League members when Norwalk hosts Glenn today. Brooks will start Angulo while Perez will toe the slab for the Lancers, who will be looking to beat Glenn for the first time since Apr. 26, 2013. Glenn will then host Mayfair High on Monday in a makeup game before welcoming one-win Artesia High on Wednesday. The Lancers will visit Bellflower High on Wednesday.

“Look, if we don’t play better, it’s going to be a game just like this,” Brooks warned. “It’s going to be a game just like this.”

“I expect we’re going to see something very similar,” Wenrick said. “I expect them to execute better and I expect us to execute better. But I’m expecting almost a similar game that we had today.”

and that kind of opened the floodgates a little bit.

“We’ve struggled a little bit with the bases loaded this season,” Ensey later said. “Just getting our girls to relax at the plate... they get a little overanxious like they want to crush it instead of just extending the inning. That’s something we’ve been really talking about as our hitting philosophy. But I wasn’t really worried. I know we were putting baserunners on and as long as we kept doing that, we were going to score more runs.”

With a seven-run lead and Morinishi cruising through four innings, allowing three hits and striking out five, the Lady Dons needed three more runs to possibly end the game early. But the Monsoons got to Morinishi in the top of the fifth inning and were aided by a key error. With two outs, Morinishi walked Soto, gave up a single to Mariah Melendez and walked Haley Davis to load the bases. An error would then allow Haylee Ridge to reach first and four pitches later, Kara Spoolstra cleared the bases with a double to the left field gap.

“She was trying to get a little too much of the plate and she wasn’t getting the corners called that she would like,” Ensey said. “So, she was having to bring it in and when Jen has to bring the ball in, then it gives teams a chance to put the ball in play.”

While the Lady Dons would not get a hit over the final two innings and only another intentional walk, the third of the game to Crockett-Pope, the Monsoons made it interesting in the seventh. Soto and Melendez each singled with none out. But Soto was caught stealing when Morinishi anticipated she would try to steal third. After that, Davis hit into a double play that glanced off Morinishi to junior shortstop Niki Ibarra, who then threw to Crockett-Pope to end the game.

“I knew it was coming, especially [since] they did it with the same batter coming up and the same runner on [before],” Morinishi said. “I was expecting it to come and I could kind of tell by Haley’s placement in the box. She moved forward a little bit to kind of block the throw to [third base] just in case [Soto] did take off.”

This has been one of the best rivalries in the league for a long time and with Cerritos moving into the 605 League next year, it will face Mayfair one last time in league competition. The Monsoons currently hold a 21-18 advantage in the series since Cerritos came into the league in 1999 but since 2011, Cerritos has won eight of 15 meetings. The rematch will be on May 3 when the league title could be claimed.

“I’m glad that I get to go out on our last year,” Morinishi said. “It’s really like all out for this year. It’s always a good game between us and Mayfair. It’s always been close, and we have a lot of respect for their team. They’re scrappy; they come back, they produce runs and I think that’s something you need to do to win ball games. I think they do a good job at that.”

Cerritos visited up and coming Artesia High on Apr. 12 and will have another big test when it hosts La Mirada High on Tuesday to wrap up the first half of league play. The Lady Dons will then entertain last place John Glenn High on Thursday.

“It’s where we wanted to be and where we expect to be as a team,” Ensey said. “We know that any team can beat anybody at any time. So, we know that every game is really crucial in our league. We’re really happy to be here at 4-0.”

“That is hard, but there’s also this pressure that’s added on of course to keep that number one spot,” Morinishi said. “We still have to remind our team that we’re still early in the [league] season; it’s only been four games. There’s no way we can get complacent now. They’re still coming back for us next game and we still haven’t played La Mirada.”

Artesia’s struggling season continued with a 17-0 loss to La Mirada this past Wednesday, dropping the team to 1-17 overall and 0-6 in the Suburban League. The Pioneers have been shutout in six of the last eight games played on the field (there was a forfeit loss to Workman High

The complaint also said that Kernick’s time working for Garcia was “extremely stressful” and that she was “very disparaging to the staff and others, used vulgar language, discussed topics inappropriate for the workplace and showed herself to be very vindictive in nature.”

Kernick said he was written up for insubordination after he complained about Garcia’s invite and was fired two days later.

But Tim Reardon, Garcia’s chief of staff at the time, told the Sacramento Bee that Kernick’s accusations were a “complete falsehood.” Reardon said Kernick was fired “because he wasn’t doing his job.”

“It’s like a malicious, really bizarre alternate universe built on a lot of innuendo and lies solely to destroy the character of Assemblywoman Garcia,” Reardon told the Bee.

Now Reardon’s statements could come back to haunt him, his staffers, and even Garcia herself.

Hews Media Group-Community News has obtained a Complaint for Damages filed by Kernick and his attorney Dan Gillean, against Reardon alleging “intrusion into private affairs.”

The complaint was filed under California Tort Claims Act as a precursor to a pending lawsuit alleging the illegal release of Reardon’s employment files to the media.

The complaint seeks unlimited and punitive damages.

The complaint alleges that Reardon disciplined and wrote-up Kernick in 2014 but waited until two days before Kernick was fired to place the letter in his employee file.

The letter cited issues over the previous several months that had not, at the time, warranted write-ups or discipline.

RETALIATION TIMELINE

On Feb 17, 2018 Kernick filed his complaint with Fair Housing against Garcia.

Kernick alleges it was Reardon who illegally and maliciously took a picture of the discipline letter and leaked it to the press.

And Gillean and Kernick back-up their allegations using forensic evidence.

Gillean told HMG-CN, “we are certainly glad Mr. Reardon is environmentally conscious, his actions to retaliate might never have been revealed.”

Cerritos improved to 14-5, 3-2 with a 2-0 win over Bellflower this past Wednesday. The win came on the heels of a 3-2, 10-inning loss to La Mirada this past Monday in which the Dins gave up the tying run in the top of the seventh. The Dons, ranked seventh in Division 4, will host Bellflower today and Mayfair on Wednesday.

tainly glad Mr. Reardon is environmentally conscious, his actions to retaliate might never have been revealed.”

The forensic evidence showed that Reardon summarized the Kernick disciplinary actions, emailed the Summary to himself, subsequently printing out the Summary document.

Reardon then typed up the actual disciplinary letter to Kernick and, in an environmentally friendly move, printed that letter on the back of the previously printed Summary email to himself.

After obtaining the document, the Gillean forensic team was able to ascertain some of the words that showed through on the two-sided print document.

The next day, Reardon told the Bee that, Mr. Kernick “ought to open up his own personnel records.”

Within hours of his statement to the Bee, the 2014 discipline letter was released to the press along with telephone numbers of Garcia contacts.

And what they found is what Gillean called, “the smoking gun of retaliation.”

One line typed by Reardon read, “I received word from Patrick that John (Kernick) had not yet arrived at the office. A few minutes later I heard them ...that his car battery had died.”

The dead battery incident was cited in Reardon’s disciplinary letter.

Another line read, “Was scheduled to staff the member at an event for transition...home wearing faded blue jeans and a t-shirt.”

The inappropriately dressed incident was once again cited in Reardon’s disciplinary letter.

“This is the smoking gun of retaliation and shows their penchant for lying,” said Gillean.

“We alleged it was Reardon in our first case, he denied it, we obtained the forensic letter, and now he is not giving a statement to anyone.”

Sources are telling HMG-CN that there are many more staffers that are afraid to come forward against Garcia for fear of retaliation.“I have been doing this a long time, said Gillean, “I have never seen people who were so certain that if they came forward they would be retaliated against.”

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.
