Metro Will Expand South Street Offramp on 605

By Brian Hews

At yesterday's meeting, Metro voted to move closer to adding a second right turn lane to the South Street offramp, which currently has two left and one right turn lane, adding a new retaining wall with an approximate length of 1,570 feet along the west shoulder-embankment of the ramp, along with new traffic signs and signals.

The project is an initial phase to set up future widening of the 605 freeway.

Metro said that "reconfiguring the South Street southbound offramp, the project will improve public safety, enhance mobility, and improve regional traffic flow."

Metro indicated that no residential or business displacements or property acquisitions are necessary for the project.

The project is funded through a combination of federal and Metro local funding, and Metro will be responsible for managing and identifying any

Fast Food Chains Radically Changing the Drive Through Concept

NO DINING ROOM: Taco Bell recently opened 'Defy' just north of Minneapolis. The innovation aims to redefine the drive-through for the digital age. The store does not have a dining room, the kitchen is on the second floor, below the kitchen is four drive through lanes. Cerritos banned drive-throughs years ago.

Cities that have banned drive-throughs must seriously reconsider the decision.

By Kim Severson

The pandemic sent people into the comforting isolation of their cars to get tested for Covid, celebrate birthdays, and even vote. And now, it seems, they don't want to get out. At least to eat.

Drive-through traffic rose 30 percent from 2019 to 2022, according to a report from the food service research firm Technomic. Meanwhile, the number of people eating inside fast-food restaurants in the first half of 2023 fell by 47 percent from the same period in 2019. According to a September report by Revenue Management Solutions, Drive-throughs now account for two-thirds of all fast-food purchases.

Why the new wave of drive-through love? Because the experience has become faster and smoother, industry executives say. The pandemic turbocharged upgrades that were already underway, including better mobile ordering, streamlined kitchens, and smarter traffic management.

Others point to cultural shifts like the growing popularity of coffee shop drive-throughs among Generation Z and young millennials, and even pet ownership, which skyrocketed during the pandemic.

"People don't like to leave their pets at home," said Diana Kelter, associate director of consumer trends for Mintel, a global market-intelligence agency. "And

More Wet Weather to Hit Southland Friday and Saturday

Staff Report

Residents shouldn't put their umbrellas away just yet as more rain is expected today and Saturday.

The dark clouds and rain that moved across much of the Southland will return, with wet weather expected to persist into the weekend.

Forecasters said the rainfall amounts could vary widely due to the changing nature of the storm system.

Rain bands are expected, and totals by late Saturday are projected to be anywhere from 1 to 3 inches.

Strong, gusty winds and slick roads will create dangerous driving conditions for commuters.

According to the National Weather Service, wind gusts from 30 to 50 miles per hour are expected, with the strongest winds at higher elevations.

Showers and thunderstorms are also expected across L.A. County, bringing frequent lightning and potential showers of small hail.

Higher elevations can expect around 2 to 2.5 inches of snow in areas over 7,000 feet.

A fire broke out in a two-story home in La Palma this week, gutting the home and forcing firefighters to take a “defensive” position.

The Orange County Fire Authority (OCFA) responded quickly to control the fire and protect their firefighters as roaring flames and dense smoke consumed the house.

According to the OCFA, the residents had evacuated before OCFA arrived.

The fire was so intense the OCFA prioritized containment of the fire, with help from the Los Angeles County Fire Department (LACOFD), Anaheim Fire Department, Fullerton Fire Department, and the La Palma Police Department.

The house was reduced to ashes; an investigation is underway. No injuries were reported.

future funding if required.

Nearly $16 million is coming from the Highway Infrastructure Program (HIP) along with a Metro local funds match from tax measure Measure R - Highway, Interstate 605 Corridor "Hot Spot" Interchanges program.

Metro indicated that the project should only take about a year, but since it is so close to the Cerritos Auto Square and the Cerritos Mall, "the project warrants a robust community and business engagement plan."

Metro said they already reached out to local jurisdictions, stakeholders, residents, businesses, and the public, including outreach to two major stakeholders in the area, the Cerritos Auto Square auto mall, and Los Cerritos Center shopping mall.

The construction costs include approximately $1.1 million for California Highway Patrol, which will pay for traffic control.

The Project Invitation for Bid was released on June 23, 2023, and 4 bids were received on August 28, 2023. Metro indicated the bids are currently being validated for responsiveness.

Powell Constructors was the apparent low bidder at $ 15.6 million; CA Rasmusen's bid was $16.4 million; Granite Construction Company's bid was $ 19.1 million; and Griffith Company's bid was $ 20.2 million.

The project is expected to start in a few weeks.

'Beautiful: The Carole King Musical' Hits All the Notes

By Stepheny Gehrig

With a remarkable cast, the La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts hosted "Beautiful: The Carole King Musical," a musical biography of Carole King's life as it examines her process of creating songs, her personal life and her rise to fame.

With outstanding actors and singers, the musical is an exceptional show worth seeing. Running around 2 hours, with a 15 minute intermission, the show was utterly captivating, keeping the audience engaged with a whirlwind of emotions and nostalgic tunes.

In the thorough depiction of King's rise to fame, the musical delves into the obstacles she faced as she persevered through hardship. Examining King's relationships with her spouse, job, and friendships, "Beautiful: The Carole King Musical" perfectly depicts all aspects of life while incorporating notable tracks written and performed by Carole King, SARA SHEPERD is outstanding as Carole King.

THE COMPANY of 'Beautiful: The Carole King Musical,' directed by David Ruttura and now playing at La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts.

played by Sara Sheperd.

Sheperd took the stage as Carole King and amazed the audience with a stunning voice and an emotional portrayal of the character. Sheperd effortlessly emulates the humble nature of Carole King while evoking passionate renditions of her music. Sheperd's performance is overall both outstanding and impressive throughout the entire performance.

On stage, Miles Jacoby gives a believable and intense performance of Carole King's husband Gerry Goffin. The dynamic between Jacoby and Sheperd makes for a poignant performance that explores the difficulties of the entangled life of two people who have grown apart. They both easily capture love and hardship and showcase the emotional turmoil of navigating a relationship that is falling apart.

The charismatic nature between characters Barry Mann (Trevor James) and Cynthia Weil (Sara King) creates a counter to the tension of the other characters on stage. Despite portraying the reality of hardship in their own relationship, James and King allow their characters to ease tensions and give the audience a glimpse of joy.

Specifically, the relationship between Cynthia Weil and Carole King is exceptionally significant in the show as it defines the role of friendship in Carole King's life. Sheperd and King bring to the stage an air of relief as the characters highlight the importance of friendship.

With Barry Mann in attendance for the Nov. 11 show, the musical closed with a well-earned standing ovation from the audience. "Beautiful: The Carole King Musical" is one of the best shows so far for the 2023 La Mirada Theatre season, and is a must-see for those interested in music history and those who enjoy nostalgic and emotional performances.

The musical runs until Dec. 3; tickets range from $19 to $90. Tickets can be purchased online at Lamiradatheatre.com.

Gift an Amaryllis for Colorful Winter Blooms

By Melinda Myers

This holiday, give a gift that keeps giving and requires no dusting. Gift friends and family a beautiful amaryllis that is sure to generate smiles as they watch the bulb transform into beautiful blossoms.

Select unique varieties for the avid gardeners on your list. Double Dancing Queen has 8" blooms with layers of ruffled snow-white petals adorned with brushstrokes of scarlet red. The flowers of Evergreen amaryllis feature mint green petals, and Wild Amazone has long, recurved petals in a blend of brick-red, maroon, ivory, and pale green. Simply nestle the bulbs into decorative bags, as the recipients are likely to have their own containers and potting mix.

Consider gifting the DIYers on your list with a growing kit that includes all the essentials: pot, potting mix, decorative moss to cover the soil, and bulb. It's everything they'll need to plant, watch and grow an amaryllis. New gardeners and those who claim to have a brown thumb will appreciate receiving a pre-planted bulb. You will enjoy the selection and planting process, and the recipient will get to enjoy the satisfaction of growing this no-fuss gift.

Plant the bulbs in a quality potting mix with the top half above the soil surface. Grow a single bulb in a pot that is seven to eight inches deep and five to six inches across with drainage holes. Or group several bulbs together in a larger container. After planting, water the potting mix thoroughly and place the container in a cool sunny location. Water sparingly until the bulb sprouts, which can take several weeks to a month or more.

Amaryllis may also be grown without any soil at all. Place several inches of pebbles in the bottom of a glass vase or watertight container. Cover the pebbles with water. Set the bulb on top of the pebbles, adding more stones around the bulb to hold it in place, but leaving the top one-third of the bulb exposed. Add water as needed, keeping it just under and not touching the bottom of the bulb.

Look for unique containers, baskets, or other items to showcase these beauties. Check out Longfield Gardens' free downloadable Winter-Blooming Bulbs Inspiration Book for creative ways to display and decorate your home with amaryllis.

Grow a few extra bulbs so you can enjoy the long-lasting blooms as cut flowers. Wait until the buds are fully formed and soft to the touch. Cut the stems to the desired length and place them in a clean vase with fresh water. Secure the stems in place with colorful stones, ornaments, faux berries, or use a vase with a narrow opening. Create a gift that lasts even longer with a selection of amaryllis bulbs that bloom at different times. Include early blooming bulbs grown in the southern hemisphere, such as Alaska with its double white flowers, Opal Star with its single sun bleach red blooms, and Cape Horn with jumbo rose pink flowers. Plant these bulbs in early November so your recipient has colorful blooms for the holidays.

Keep the color coming by gifting amaryllis from Holland and other areas in the northern hemisphere. These bulbs bloom from January through March, depending on the variety and when they are planted. Three or more varieties will provide months of midwinter flowers.

Remind your gift recipient to relax while waiting for their amaryllis to start growing. The bulbs don't sprout until they're ready, and it's impossible to know exactly when that will be. Once the bud begins to emerge, the daily transformation is thrilling to watch.

Gifting amaryllis is sure to bring you and those on your gift list lots of joy. Order bulbs early for the best selection, gather needed accessories, and have fun preparing this unique holiday gift.

CIF-SOUTHERN SECTION DIVISION 11 FOOTBALL PLAYOFFS

GAHR'S OFFENSE SHUT DOWN IN SECOND HALF BY TOP-SEEDED QUARTZ HILL

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on Twitter

UPLAND-It takes one play to put a charge in a team for the rest of the game and for Cerritos High, that one play came on the opening kickoff of its CIF-Southern Section Division 12 quarterfinal game at Western Christian High. Junior Dikshanta Adhikari returned the kickoff 53 yards and after being pushed back five yards on a false start infraction, the Dons scored on the next play.

After that, Cerritos stunned the home crowd, scoring on its next possession, then getting a defensive touchdown and a special teams touchdown in a matter of eight seconds late in the stanza. When the dust had settled, Cerritos pulled off a 55-44 win last Friday at Dr. Harold K. Sider Field, sending the Dons into the semifinals for the first time in school history.

"For a change, we took the ball," said Cerritos first-year head coach Demel Franklin. "We normally defer the kick and put it on our defense. But we knew they had an electric offense, and I didn't want to give them a chance to go in and score, and then it's on us. We are very physical, and we wanted to challenge them to see how we would do. I think we did pretty well."

"I'm speechless," said senior Josh Park. "Who would have thought we would go to round three this year, especially in my last year? So, it was very exciting."

Western Christian entered the game having scored 437 points through 11 games and finished the season gaining close to 472 yards a game. But it was the Cerritos offense that was putting up off was scooped up by junior Nathaiel Crawford, who went a mere 16 yards for a shocking and surprising 28-0 lead before the quarter had reached the 10-minute mark. To put that into perspective, the Fighting Lancers had not allowed 28 points in the first quarter all season. The most they had allowed in the first quarter was 23 against Maranatha High on Sept. 15.

"Our defense set the tone in the first quarter," said Park. "That's what we like, and then our offense fed off that energy and we just scored a lot in the first quarter, the points early and often. With the 605 League champions starting at the Western Christian 19-yard line, sophomore quarterback Justin Sagun went around the left side and scored just 17 seconds into the contest. After the defense forced three incomplete passes by Jared Doolittle, it took three plays for Cerritos to make it 14-0 as Sagun again went to his left and scored on an eight-yard run.

With 3:28 left in the quarter, the Fighting Lancers got ball back after recovering a fumble and following an incomplete pass and a four-yard run from Doolittle, he had his seventh pass of the game tipped and land in the waiting hands of junior cornerback Ruben Castro, who scampered 50 yards for a touchdown.

The early scoring barrage didn't stop there as a fumble on the ensuing kick-

Western Christian got its first points just over two minutes into the second quarter when Doolittle, who had thrown for 37 touchdowns on the season entering the contest, hooked up with J.J. Hooper for a 35-yard connection. On the next drive, the Dons (7-5), chewed up 6:03 off the clock by gaining 89 yards on 10 plays, ending with a three-yard score from junior running back Josiah Ungos. With nearly four minutes remaining in the half, Cerritos was up 35-6, however, considering what type of offense Western Christian had, Franklin knew the game was far from over.

"I didn't expect it to go that way," said Franklin. "I thought there would be fireworks from the beginning. The fact that we stopped them on the first drive of the game gave our offense more confidence, and then we went out and scored again and we were on fire. In the second half, they figured out some things and defensively, we were on our heels the whole second half. It was very surprising and shocking, but I'll take that surprise."

Sagun completed the only two passes he would throw for 20 yards while senior Julian Morales had a 29-yard pass to Castro as all three passes came in the first half. But the extent of the Cerritos offense would lie in its running game as Adhikari, Park, Sagun and Ungos combined for 117 yards on 22 carries in the half while Western Christian had picked up 122 yards with Doolittle completing seven of 19 passes for 90 yards.

Even with the score 35-6 with two minutes remaining in the half, Franklin

NEWS AND NOTES FROM PRESS ROW

ARTESIA FOOTBALL KEEPS RUNNING AND RUNNING, ADVANCES TO DIVISION 14 SEMIFINALS

By Loren Kopff
@LorenKopff on X/Twitter

The top-ranked football team in the CIF-Southern Section's Division 14 has not been a part of the upset bug as, for the second time in six seasons, Artesia High is in the semifinals. The Pioneers knocked off Santa Rosa Academy 21-12 on the road last Friday, improving to 8-4 as they travel to Bell Gardens High on Friday.

Artesia, the second place team from the 605 League, advanced to the Division 12 finals in 2018 losing to Linfield Christian High 70-32. The Pioneers have already exceeded their combined win total of the past four seasons and are one of eight top-ranked teams in the 14 divisions to still be alive. Junior quarterback Charlie Lopez completed one pass, which went for four yards to junior wide receiver Ahkil Sampson. But he rushed for 124 yards on 14 carries and scored all three touchdowns-one yard and 14 yards in the second quarter and 40 yards in the third quarter. He leads the team with 1,778 yards and 23 touchdowns while junior running back Julius Padilla, who gained 203 yards on 28 carries, has gained 739 yards with nine touchdowns to his season resume.

The Pioneers have won four of their past five games, scoring at least 21 points in those four victories and have reached the 20-point mark in all their wins while their four setbacks have all been within 20 points and by a combined 55 points.

Bell Gardens enters the game with a 7-5 mark and defeated fourth-ranked Ocean View High 28-21 last Friday. The Lancers finished in third place in the Almont League and have a point differential of eight points. Common opponents for Artesia and Bell Gardens are Mark Keppel High and Pioneer High. Mark Keppel was dominated by the Pioneers, 41-0 on Aug. 25, and by the Lancers, 70-6, in regular season finale, while Pioneer fell to Artesia 37-19 on Oct. 12 and to Bell Gardens 46-30 on Sept. 1.

When the Lancers have fallen this season, they have lost bad. They were shutout twice, scored a touchdown each in two other losses and was on the short end of a 34-16 decision to San Gabriel High. Complete statistics were not made available.

The winner of this game will face either third-ranked Hawthorne High or Lynwood High. If Artesia wins, it will host the championship game.

Prediction: Artesia 35, Bell Gardens 20

DIVISION 12

#1 Coachella Valley High (10-2) @

#13 Cerritos High (7-5)-See Cerritos/Western Christian High game story.

Cerritos has never been to the semifinals and has won seven games for the first time since 2001 when that team finished at 9-2. Coachella Valley, which finished second in the Desert Valley League, is seeking the program's fourth trip to a divisional championship game. The last time occurred in 1968 when it lost to St. Bonaventure High 27-20 in the 'A' finals. Coachella Valley has eight straight winning seasons after five straight losing campaigns.

A Cerritos win means the Dons will host either Santa Fe High or Yucca Valley High in the championship game.

Prediction: Coachella Valley 56, Cerritos 49

Last week's predictions: 2-0
Season to date: 52-16

HOW TO PLAY: The words are found in all directions - vertically, horizontally, diagonally, backward. Circle each letter of a word found and strike it off the list. The letters are often used more than once so do not cross them out. It is best to find the big words first. When you find all the words listed in the clues you'll have a number of letters left over that spell out the WONDERWORD.

was concerned with the penalty situation where the Dons were hurting themselves, being flagged nine times for 75 yards, including consecutive personal foul penalties before a snap was taken that took the ball from the Western Christian 27-yard line to the Cerritos 46-yard line right after Ungos scored. The Fighting Lancers were forced to punt on the drive, but Franklin was still displeased with the yellow laundry all over the field, forcing him to send a stern message during his halftime speech.

"I told them to clean up the penalties," said Franklin. "We had a lot of dumb penalties; holding, false start and we're talking, which I hated. I yelled at them and used some choice language to have them shut their mouths. That was my speech."

Western Christian had two possessions in the third quarter, the first lasting 3:12 and resulted in a Doolittle to Darryl Booker 25-yard touchdown pass. After Cerritos answered with a four-yard score from Park exactly four minutes later, the hosts, who play on a field that gives the visiting team, and the chain crew just three and a half yards from the sideline to the back of a fence to maneuver through, were stopped on downs. At the Cerritos 49-yard line, Doolittle was looking for Hooper, but the ball was knocked down by sophomore cornerback Michael Quibrantar on fourth and 16.

With the Dons up 41-12 with 11:04 remaining, the game would move in a faster mode, compliments to Doolittle and his receiving corps of Booker, Hooper, Jeffrey Jackson, and Elijah Vasquez. Through the first three quarters, Doolittle was 12 of 29 for 174 yards and a pair of touchdowns, but in the final 11:04, he had better numbers.

It started with a 69-yard touchdown pass to Hooper and with a two-point conversion from Doolittle, it was 41-20 with 10:18 left. Cerritos came back with an Adhikari five-yard score. But Booker's 38-yard kickoff return helped set up a Doolittle to Hooper 18-yard touchdown play and with another two-point conversion, it was 48-28 with 7:14 left in the game. The Fighting Lancers would recover an onside kick, which led to a 32-yard scoring pass from Doolittle to Vasquez four plays later.

But Cerritos refused to lift the foot off the gas pedal as a failed onside kick gave the Dons a short field where Adhikari's 10-yard gain led to a 20-yard touchdown run from Park and with 5:59 left in the game, it was 55-36. The final touchdown of the game came with 2:17 remaining, a short two-yard pass from Doolittle to Vasquez, plus a two-point conversion from the signal caller who began the game with close to 3,000 yards through the air.

"We wanted to push and keep scoring because we want to go to that round three," said Park. "So, we kept driving and we kept scoring. [Our approach] was to keep moving and not get your guard down. It was close towards the end, but our defense stayed in, and our offense kept pushing."

"We knew they score in the blink of an eye," said Franklin. "They were just scoring left and right, left and right and we were playing the clock. One thing I knew, they couldn't stop us. I had that confidence that they were not going to stop us all night. I knew that."

Doolittle finished the game 25 of 47 and had career-highs with 434 yards and six touchdowns while Hooper caught eight passes for 220 yards. For the Dons, Park gained 96 yards on 14 carries while Adhikari had 80 yards on 13 carries and Ungos another 71 yards on 16 touches. Senior linebacker and safety Gabe Gaudi led the defensive charge with a dozen tackles while Crawford had 11 tackles and junior Devyn Chantha another five tackles.

"I go into no game thinking we're going to lose," said Franklin. "I breed confidence and I want the kids to feel that. We've done a lot of hard work and I know what we have. A lot of people will look at our record, but you have to look at the score of those games. We were in every one of those games."

Now, Cerritos will face a tougher task on Friday when it hosts Coachella Valley High for the right to play for the program's first divisional championship. The Mighty Arabs (that is their official mascot as approved by the Coachella Valley Unified School District in 2014), who defeated Don Lugo High 52-35 last Friday, are 10-2 and the top-ranked team in the division. They have won five straight games and have scored 513 points this season. Coachella Valley's lone losses were to Xavier Prep (14-7) in the first game of the season and to Yucca Valley High (69-45) on Oct. 5.

All 10 regular season opponents have been against desert teams, including one against Las Vegas-based El Dorado High on Sept. 8. Coachella Valley's travels during the regular season in the state have been to Blythe, Cathedral City, Indio, Palm Desert, and Yucca Valley.

The heart and soul of the Mighty Arabs offense lies in Aaron Ramirez, who has rushed for 1,979 yards and scored 29 touchdowns. The only other player to reach triple digits on the ground is Ivan Camargo, who has gained 504 yards in 60 carries with eight touchdowns.

Quarterback Derek Calderon is 116 of 200 for 1,874 yards with 23 touchdowns but has been picked off seven times and his top targets are Miguel Rodriguez (55 receptions, 890 yards, 13 touchdowns), Ramirez (25 receptions, 506 yards, four touchdowns) and Ernesto Rocio (14 receptions, 247 yards, four touchdowns).

The team is averaging over 400 yards a game but on defense Coachella Valley has allowed at least 20 points in eight games, has sacked opposing quarterbacks 15 times from nine players and has a dozen interceptions from seven players.

The seven victories are the most for the Dons since 2001 when they went 9-2 overall and were tri-champions of the old Suburban League. The message from Franklin as far as his team's approach this week in practice is the same one as his halftime speech last Friday. Cerritos ended up with 13 accepted penalties for 120 yards while Western Christian had 14 accepted penalties for 120 yards.

"That killed us," said Franklin. "In a tighter game, we lose the game, and probably get blown out. So, that's what we're going to clean up on Monday. I'm going to penalize them myself on Monday and we're going to run a lot."

you can't bring your dog into Starbucks.”
As momentum builds, the $113 billion fast-food industry is leaning in. Popeyes executives are cutting the size of dining rooms in half. Taco Bell is experimenting with eliminating them altogether in favor of more car lanes. Chick-fil-A plans to open a two-story, four-lane drive-through in Atlanta next year that can handle 75 cars at a time and delivers food from the kitchen on a conveyor belt.

Restaurants are tailoring mobile menus to individual customers based on their past purchases. Some are experimenting with artificial intelligence that can take orders in Spanish or English, depending on the first words from a guest's mouth.

Witness the Taco Bell behemoth that recently opened in Brooklyn Park, just north of Minneapolis; the company calls it Defy, an innovation that aims to redefine the drive-through for the digital age. It has no dining room. The kitchen is on the second floor. Below, three of its four drive-through lanes are reserved for delivery drivers and people who order through an app. Bags of food zip from the kitchen to the customer on a round tray a little smaller than manhole cover that travels up and down a system of plastic tubes.

Companies like Starbucks and Biscuitville are getting more creative, building smaller restaurants that create fewer traffic snarls and fit better into neighborhoods.

In October, McDonald's said in its quarterly earnings report that 40 percent of its sales came from customers ordering digitally. It opened its first drive-through restaurant without a dining room late last year in Fort Worth.

Even fast-casual restaurants that once shunned drive-through culture and targeted urban customers willing to pay more for fresher, less-processed ingredients have jumped on the train.

You can now get your grand slam from the comfort of your front seat.

California's first drive-thru Denny's opened this past Monday in the city of Kernan in Fresno County.

Shake Shack, which started as a hot-dog stand in a Manhattan park in 2001 and now has more than 500 restaurants around the world, opened its first drive-through in December 2021 in Maple Grove, Minn. Now it has 22. Sweetgreen, a company built on custom-made salads whose ethos includes being less carbon-intensive, opened a Sweetlane last year in Schaumburg, Ill.

“Drive-through culture has really been one thing, and we are happy to help make it something else,” said Nicholas Jammet, who co-founded the chain.

Plenty of independent restaurant owners opened drive-through lanes to get through the pandemic- and they kept them open.

Danny Klein, the editorial director of QSR magazine and author of its annual Drive-Thru Report, calls this “the era of drive-through optimization.”

The quality — and the price — of drive-through food are both rising as wait times get shorter. “The drive-through is no longer a trade-off that is just fast and cheap,” Klein said. “Now it's really about the technology. It's about being accurate and being a good experience.”
